

TRAIL BUILDING AND DESIGN WORKSHOP

April 8, 2017 Brown County State Park

LEARN FROM SUZANNE MITTENTHAL, THE BUILDER OF THE TECUMSEH TRAIL

WHERE: Brown County State Park, Nashville, Indiana.

- Presentation: Activities Building near Campground Entrance;
- Training: on the adjacent Ogle Hollow Nature Trail #5.

WHEN: April 8, 2017, 9AM –4 PM.

WHO: Suzanne Mittenthal, Founder of the Hoosier Hikers Council & the Knobstone Hiking Trail Association. Directed the rehabilitation and expansion of hiking trails at BCSP 2003-2008, and trails at Morgan-Monroe/Yellowwood State Forest, including the Tecumseh Trail, 1996—2001.

WHAT: Learn trail sustainable design principles behind trail layout, construction, & maintenance work.

SCHEDULE:

- 9-10:30 AM: Principles of Sustainable Trail Design (coffee/drinks & donuts provided)
- 10:30—12:00 AM: Inspect examples illustrating principles on Ogle Hollow Nature Trail.
- Noon: Lunch (bring own food; drinks provided)
- 12:30—3:30 PM: Supervised rehab. & building work on existing trail and new trail section.
- 3:30—4 PM: Review and summary.

FEE: $5 donation, or $25 if a certificate is desired.

TOOLS: Bring shovel, or other trail building tools; no rakes. Some specialized equipment available.

SPONSOR: Knobstone Hiking Trail Association:

- www.KnobstoneHikingTrail.org
- KHTAssociation@gmail.com.